Involvement in Christian Service . . .

We have many students involved in Christian service assignments and in gospel teams. It has been an exciting year including many tours, to as far away as Jamaica.

Life With

Far Left: As fair workers plan their booths, Donna Blum exclaims, "Is that a cow?" Many students began months in advance to come up with ideas such as milking this paper mache cow.

Middle Left: Students were amazed at the dirt in Schultz Hall as they fulfilled their cleaning duties Friday morning.

Middle Right: "Well, I used to know how this worked," stuttered Roger Ringenberg, Treasurer of Youth Conference, as he prepares Bethany Lounge for registration.

Far Right: "Welcome to Youth Conference," was expressed to everyone of the 649 conferees as they moved swiftly through the registration line.

Youth

"Miss Gerig, does this go here?" asks Dick Foust, Chairman of Youth Conference. Miss Gerig, an advisor of Youth Conference, assists in straightening out many details involved in the success of Youth Conference.

"Life with a Purpose and Life with a Goal" written by Jerry Noble was sung by Collegians while the conferees learned it.

Folk singing rounded out Friday evening fun.

Conference '68

Bob Stone, director of VCY in Detroit, Mich. and speaker for the weekend, talks to the conferees on their personal relationship with Christ.

"Are you sure you don't need more?"

"Say what you mean and mean what you say!"

"Ouch, why do you have to throw it so hard?"

Youth

"The time is Now Young America!"

"Has anyone seen my tricycle?"

Music—a major part of FWBC life.

"Boy, that other piece looks more delicious."

Conference '68

On Sunday patriotism rang throughout the chapel as Collegians sang out with "America"

"Now what do we do with them?"

'What In The World Is Going On?'

Missionary Conference

Speaking at Missionary Conference this year was the Rev. Kenn W. Opperman, minister at the Avenue Road Church, Toronto, Canada. He had opportunity to talk personally with students as well as speaking in the services on "The Bible Basis of Missions".

"What in the world is going on?" was the topic of a panel discussion by Rev. Bertsche, Rev. Opperman, and Dr. Warner. They answered questions from students concerning missions and the missionary.

In talking about his coffee house ministry Rev. Opperman said that if he did not see a change in a hippie's life after he had made a decision for Christ then he has found that he had not had a real experience with Christ.

Spiritual Emphasis

First Semester

"The kids here are fantastic. You have here on this campus the potential to shake this world." These are the words of Dr. John H. Boswell, executive director of the Sacramento Valley Youth for Christ. Dr. Boswell was the speaker for the first semester Spiritual Emphasis Week, September 26-29.

According to Dr. Boswell the ability of today's teen to think enables him to "get down to business with God" and experience the reality and practicality of true Christian living and witnessing. He felt that this particularly applied to the Bible College campus.

Second Semester

Soft spoken and easy going Rev. Donald A. Miller, pastor of Hope Congregational Church of St. Louis, was guest speaker for second semester Spiritual Emphasis Week beginning January 30.

Mr. Miller studied at Taylor University and at Winona Lake School of Theology. He is also a graduate of Nyack Missionary College.

After completing his college training, Mr. Miller served pastorates in New York and for the past twelve years in Syracuse, New York.

"In the Shepherd's Steps"

Christian Ministries Retreat

"Time alone to find out more about yourself and God" was a frequent comment made as students returned from CMR this year. "In the Shepherd's Steps" under the leadership of Lois Haycock proved to be a time of learning to follow the Shepherd.

Singing and game time preceded by devotions and discussion groups filled most of Saturday morning. Bill Steiner, Dick Armstrong, and Dan Hanes lead the group in some folk songs after lunch. (Right)

After an afternoon of recreation, everyone spruced up for the Banquet and evening service Saturday night.

Student Missionary Fellowship

Student Missionary Fellowship this year has attempted to inform students of the growing needs of missions around the world. This task has been accomplished through informative pamphlets, bi-weekly meetings, and weekly prayer meetings. The Student Missionary Fellowship project this year was the support of the Ben Cat Orphanage. Since the opening last August under the auspices of a national branch of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, Ben Cat Orphanage offers hope to thirty-nine young victims of the war in Vietnam.

Involvement in Activities . . .

This has been a busy year for all "B.C." students. So far this year we have been involved in . . .

Musical Concerts

We were involved with the preparation and followup for the New Folk.

The Women's Philharmonic
String Quartet with Judy Hakes.

Christmas Banquet

Many of us attended the Christmas Dinner held here in our Cafeteria.

Then we went to the Chapel for an entertaining program.

Spring Banquet

We were involved in our Spring Banquet at the Cutter's Chalet.

Many of our faculty were there also.

Dr. Warner told many funny (?) stories that night.

The Servant in the House

This was Fort Wayne Bible College's first attempt at theater in the round and it was a huge success. Extra chairs had to be set up to accommodate the large crowd. We even got a favorable review in the News-Sentinel. This is a scene in the play between Tom Lehman and Karen Goins.

Student Recital

Phyllis Bush gives her last recital at F.W.B.C.

Social Service

This year 100 students showed up at the First Missionary Church to give blood to the Red Cross. This is Betty Mancinelli giving her pint of blood.

Social Life

Well, it looks as if we have stumbled on some of the fellows studying diligently in Kampus Korner. Somehow it does not appear to be sinking in.

Whatever is going on behind the doors at Lexington must be interesting. Does someone have a new boyfriend?

Mr. Heck is always willing to help.

When social activities are over there is still plenty to do.

It is registration time again.

Remember This?

The coffee hour talks
in the Snack Shop.

Those wonderful
student council
meetings at 6:30
in the morning.

"Are there any more pretzels left?" asks Doug Barcalow.

The annual ordeal of giving blood. Good luck next year Dr. Wes.

Our surging Ambassadors came through with a good season.

*Involved With
the Seniors . . .*

*Our ultimate goal
has been achieved*
